The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1,3,5-8 & 10-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over PAJ (10-113145) for reasons of record.

Applicant argues that PAJ uses more than 50 wt% oil or fat in his process and that when the product has more than 50% oil, the food is greasy. This argument has been considered but is not persuasive. No unobvious or unexpected difference is seen from the use of more oil in the PAJ process. The seasoning in PAJ appears to be added to an oily stir fry pan and so this would be add more oil to the seasoning composition.

Applicant argues that PAJ teaches away from using more than 0.3wt% emulsifier. This is disagreed with because page 5 appears to state just the opposite. Applicant urges that salt is not mentioned in PAJ but since this is for a stir-fried dish, one of ordinary skill in the art would expect that the stir-fry is liberally treated with soy sauce, a rich source of salt. To add or subtract salt from a seasoning product would have been an obvious way to modify the salt to taste. Applicant urges that the reference does not show the advantages of salt and lecithin in anti-spattering. This argument has been considered but is not persuasive because the claims, as written, do not require an anti-spattering feature.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
